

Title: Welcome to Crash Course 2019

Hank Green and his brother John started Crash Course with the goal of helping students and teachers with World History and Biology . The channel has expanded to include Chemistry, Literature, Psychology, Film, Sociology, Physics and Sociology .

We just want to make educational content thats helpful for as many people as possible . If youre a teacher, wed love to use these videos to help you prepare a lecture or lessonplan .

Learning is, a little bit, the meaning of life . Join our amazing community over on Patreon, which is, by the way, the only way we can do this .
